With Ferrin Cox

We have had several complaints about the new telephone books. The omplainers are Elba folks who don't like to pick up the book and see the big ENTERPRISE on the front, with Elba, New Brockton and Daleville in type less than half the size. Their biggest concern of course is the Elba portion of the smaller type. We were not surprised at the reaction, but personally know of a number of other more important things we plan to straighten out before

The U.S. Senate failed Tuesday to pave the way for prayer in public schools. Some folks have been offended when we wrote that we were opposed to such a new law. We hate to offend anyone on this matter, but frankly we have the same concerns as most of those offended; we just get a different answer when we add up the parts of the problem. We repeat: our concern with such a law is that it leaves open a window for nuts, or just people with different ideas than I want my children taught, to move into the school room and preach their own form of religion. While we would like to believe this couldn't happen in south Alabama, much more bizarre things have already happened, even in Totsye Walker. Ninety-Six, S.C.

It is comforting to know that Governor George Wallace is keeping his pledge not to pass any more consumer taxes. He explained last week that the property tax and income tax increases he proposed are not consumer taxes because they don't affect ALL the people. Governor Wallace can say that every day between now and voting time, but that doesn't necessarily mean City. FL; Irene Garner, Florala; one the people will believe it. However, on the other hand we expect both brother - Doc Wilson, Americus, GA; proposals to pass the Alabama legislature and to get voter approval. The 20 grandchildren, 15 great grandreason is that they in fact don't affect the majority, as most homes are valued at less than $50,000 for tax purposes, and farms valued at less than $250,000 are exempt. The income tax increase from five percent to six percent is on J.H. KILLINGSWORTH the top, and is on corporations. While we fall in the category of owning a home that falls under the magic $50,000 mark, we also realize that large companies who pay the increased tax will pass it on to those who buy from them as an added expense, much as they would have the now-dead wholesale sales tax. We are gonna pay the bill ultimately, whatever plan is devised.

We were privileged to eat some fine bass at noon Tuesday. One of Elba's expert fishermen invited this country boy to break bread with a select group he was feeding, and we were wise not to miss that pile of groceries. In fact, we just skipped the evening meal after making a pig of ourself at that "slightly-after-noon" feed.

The Coffee County Health Department or someone in the office failed to get our message two weeks ago when we wrote about their stopping of a church Randall Killingsworth, Owensboro, group from selling barbecue. We are printing a letter from them this week KY; Farrell Killingsworth. citing all the rules on serving food to the public. We don't challenge a single Pensacola, FL; one sister - Evelyn one of those rules, and didn't the previous week. However, we did - and still Bowden, Jack; one brother - Sterlyn do - quarrel with enforcing the law on Friday and not on Saturday. We understand from more than one source that they were told on that Friday that FL: 13 grandchildren. another group would be doing the same thing the next day and didn't even acknowledge at the time of the statement that they were even listening to the JEANELLE K. LINDSEY information. We want tight health standards in Coffee County . . . seven

We read that actor Dick Gregory addressed the Alabama Education Dothan hospital. Funeral services MRS. JUNE HAMM'S THIRD-GRADE CLASS enjoyed a field tr Association in Huntsville last week and was well received. We of course were held Monday, March 19, at 4 Wednesday, March 7, visiting several locations in town, including city hall, disagree with some of the things he said (strike, march, etc.), but found several things in his address that we can agree with wholeheartedly. We hope others listen when he tells children (black or white) that only one in Burial followed in the church Jacobs and Mrs. Suzanne Stokes provided transportation and assistance. 42,000 can succeed in professional athletics and urges them to become scientists, researchers and political leaders. We also liked what Gregory said of Enterprise directing. when he advised teachers to work to get better classrooms and materials and buildings before they seek higher pay. He expressed an opinion that if they Clifford Lindsey, Rt. 1, New work for these items, their pay increases would come through the back door. While he may have oversimplified that matter, we do feel the two work Rt. 1, Elba; four sisters - Mrs. C.L. hand-in-hand, and that teachers will have an easier job getting more pay when the general public recognizes overall improvements

If you didn't call or come by last Thursday or Friday with a complaint about one brother - James D. Knight, Rt. what was - or was not - in the paper, then you missed your chance. We caught some pent-up emotions on those two days . . . enough to last a while! Most of the complaints were for omissions rather than commissions of errors, but BRAXTON B. ROWE SR. they were still from disgruntled readers. While we can't honestly say we enjoy the complaints, we are glad people care enough to complain, and while Enterprise, died Tuesday, March 13, we never expect to reach a perfection that will please everyone, we will try to 1984, in a Birmingham hospital.

Miss Fuller Honored With Showers

Tea and Miscellaneous Shower
The spacious and beautiful home of Mrs. Basil Whitman was the setting for a tea and miscellanous shower honoring Miss Beverly Fuller, bride-elect of James Michael Tindell on Sunday afternoon, March

The front entrance was adorned with white wedding bells and bows. The bride-elect's chosen colors of light blue and yellow were used in decorations throughout the house. Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Whitman and presented to the receiving line composed of the honoree; her mother, Nadine Fuller; the mother of the groom-elect Mrs. Sue Tindell, and his grandmother, Mrs. Arabelle Smith.

Guests were directed to the refreshment table by Mrs. Wendell Kelley. Mrs. Willie Ray Crocker and Mrs. Bobby McIntosh served the refreshments which consisted of punch, petit fours, nuts, mints, sandwiches, cheese wafers and dipped pretzels. Mrs. Malcom Davis, Mrs. Wesley Parker and Mrs. Harold Kelley also assisted in Gifts were displayed by Mrs.

REBEL BAND ACHIEVES SUPERIOR RATINGS AT CONTEST

BY: DEDIE FULLER

The Zion Chapel Rebel Band competed in the District Band Contest held on a recent Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Troy State iniversity. The Rebel band perormed on Friday at 3:30. The three pieces of music they prepared for the contest were "Big , "Four Winds", "Arioso". The Rebel Band was the first band in their class to receive all superior ratings on Friday. Along with receiving superior ratings on their prepared pieces of music, they also received a superior rating in sight reading.

Judges for the contest were Lacy Powell, Cecil Wilder, Bill Belcher Mrs. Wilson In 16th Year and Orland Thomas. After the AEA break, the band At Zion Chapel will begin practice for the state

I took my family to the beach last weekend for a mini-vacation and while none of us got much of a tan, we did have a relaxing weekend. Now back to

ELBA CONCLUDES SPRING TRAINING

Coach Mack Wood's Elba Tigers will wrap-up spring football drills this week and it has been quite a spring in Tigertown! Almost 70 players will be dressed-out in tonight's (Thursday) Black & Gold game and all of 'em know how to play. It has been a unique spring due to the large number of returning starters (7 on offense and 7 on defense), but Coach Wood has worked 'em hard and some new faces will undoubtedly move into the line-up, pushing out veterans. Yep, the Tigers appear to be stronger than ever and it should be quite a show tonight.

COUNTY SCHOOL IN OPENING WEEK OF DRILLS

The three county schools all opened spring training this week and spirits are high on all three fields as the pads start popping. At New Brockton, Coach Leavy Boutwell's Gamecocks went right to work n opening day and you can bet they're working long and hard. The Gamecocks will face another tough schedule next season, so , you know they'll be hitting hard at Brockton. Up at Zion Chapel, Coach John Frank Hudson is putting the Rebels thruspring drills and things are looking up with over 25 boys out for practice. The Rebels are really knocking heads and I'm expecting to see a vastly improved

Down at Kinston, Coach Ronnie Cottrell has a big group out and spirits are high. The Bulldogs will have a new schedule next season that will be nore competitive and the schedule seems to have put an air of optimism in the Bulldogs camp. It could be interesting.

TIGER BASEBALLER LOOKING FOR WINNING SEASON

The Elba High baseball team will open its season next week (March 30) and the Tigers are excited about their chances to post a winning season. Coach Rick Rainer has already got the team taking batting practice and even though the team is young, it is talented and loves to play. I don't expect Elba to be anybody's "whipping boy" this season!

STATE BASKETBALL TOURNEY MOVES TO BIRMINGHAM

The A.H.S.A.A. announced last week, that next season the state high school basketball tournament will move to Birmingham's Fair Park gym. The move doesn't upset me, but I don't think the Fair Park gym is big enough to hold the crowds. The gym seats only 5,400 and if a couple of Birmingham schools get in the tourney, the fans from the other towns won't have The tourney will include the top 4 teams in all six classes and last only 3

Legislation Would Stop Drunk Boaters

Marine Police Director William B. Garner appealed for support of egislation introduced in the State House of Representatives which, if enacted, will provide chemical esting for blood alcohol content boat operators alledged to be operating boats while using or under the influence of alcohol or drugs. The proposed legislation is House Bill 228, presently in the Judiciary

> Garner says passage of the legislation, similar to that applied to automobile drivers, can be a positive step toward eliminating the menace of drunken boat operators, or those operating boats while under the influence of alcohol or drugs, who pose a danger or harass other boaters and waterway users of the State of Alabama, as well as the occupants of their own boats.

The purpose of the proposed bill is to assist Marine Police Officers in curtailing the growing menance of alcohol abuse problems on the State's waterways. National statistics indicate a growing number of boating accidents and alcohol abuse is attributed as a contributing factor in as many as 60 percent of the Investigation of boating accidents in Alabama indicate the same general trend, according to Garner, and the problem needs immediate attention. Garner went on to say there were 141 boating accidents in 1983, resulting in 34 deaths and 63 serious injuries. So far this year there already have been five accidents, resulting in four deaths and two serious injuries and we have nearly three months before the season really gets underway.

Boat operators, whose judgment, perception and reaction time are impaired or adversely menace of hazard, must be removed from our waterways. Under the existing statute operating a boat while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs is a violation. However, what constitutes intoxication has never beer defined. The dilemma has created enforcement problems resulting in the arrest of only those people intoxicated to the point immobility, for operating boa under the influence of alcohol. Garner emphasized, the boater implied consent law, as proposed applies only to boaters involved with motor or engine propelled vessels Sailboats are not included. Public support for this legislation is vital, if ve are to clear our waterways of these hazardous boaters. They might be compared to those driving our highways under the influence of alcohol and drugs and constitute a similar threat to the safety and
